

Chocolate maker injecting cash into children's charities

by Lee Owens Thursday, August 18th 2016

A Kingsport chocolate maker is celebrating its anniversary by giving away big bucks to local children's charities.

Bellafina Chocolates is turning six years old. To celebrate they are giving away $6,000 to six different organizations. Fans can vote for which one will win the grand prize.

To vote, you can go to their Facebook page or just order some chocolates.

"A hundred percent of our profits go to children's charities," Bellafina Chocolates President Brenda Barnicki said. "We have typically done a summer giveaway for a portion of that. Since it was six years, we decided that $6,000 sounded about right."

The winning charity will get $3,000, and the other five charities will split the remaining $3,000.
