

Eye candy for Valentine's Day!

by Rebecca Pepin Thursday, February 5th 2015

KINGSPORT, Tenn. - Bellafina Chocolates in Kingsport, TN is helping the Morrison school of Bristol, VA raise money. The Morrison school nurtures students who learn differently and require a different environment than what is offered in a traditional school setting. Bellafina and Morrison teamed up for a special Valentine's Day fundraiser. Some of the students created Valentine's Day-themed artwork and that was turned into specialty gift boxes for Bellafina Chocolates.

The plan is to raise money for the school one delicious bite at time!

And with one of these boxes of chocolates, you also get a little eye candy.

"They're adorable," said Bellafina founder Brenda Barnicki. "They just did the art in the last few weeks for Valentine's Day. They did it especially for us. So they did all sorts of Valentine's Day themes. And we even have Cupid in his underwear (laughs)."

Bellafina Chocolates' sole purpose is to help some of the world's most vulnerable children.

The company donates 100 percent of its proceeds.

To buy a box of Chocolates to benefit the Morrison school, click here.